VOL. II. RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 11, 1867. NO. 208.

THE SENTINEL.

WM E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THE RECOMMENDATION AND NOMINATION OF REGISTERS IN BANKRUPTCY.

By direction of Chief-Justice Chase, the Clerk of the United States Supreme Court issued the following statement to-day regarding the recommendation and nomination of Registers in bankruptcy:

First, Under the act of Congress, the power of appointing Registers in Bankruptcy is vested in the District Courts of the United States, the Supreme Courts of the Territories, and the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia; but no person can be appointed who is not a Counsellor-at-law.

Second, The duty of recommending and nominating to the District Courts and other courts mentioned in the act, suitable persons for the appointment, is imposed on the Chief Justice of the United States; and Congress having now adjourned without acting upon the bill introduced into the Senate to repeal this provision, he will proceed to carry it into effect.

Third. To insure, as far as practicable, the election of fit men for Registers, the Chief-Justice will require, in every case where his recommendation and nomination is desired, first, a certificate from the Clerk or Judge of the proper District or Territorial Court, or of some State Court of Record, under seal of the court, that the gentleman named therein is a counsellor of said court; and secondly, a statement in what Congressional District or Territory the gentleman named therein is a counsellor of said court; and secondly, a statement in what Congressional District or Territory the gentleman proposed resides, and for what District or Territory and for what Judicial District the recommendation is desired; and thirdly, letters from business and professional men of the district, State, or Territory, who have the confidence of their fellow citizens, each of which letters must vouch distinctly and fully for the gentleman named, (1) in respect to his professional knowledge and ability; (2) in respect to his personal integrity; and (3) in respect to his general business capacity.

Fourth. In addition to these, where the State is represented in Congress, similar letters, if they can be had, are desired from the representative of the district and from the Senators of the State, or, in the case of a territory, from the delegate.

Fifth. No memorials, or petitions, or recommendations, signed by others than the writer, are required.

Sixth. All letters upon which any recommendation and nomination may be made, will be filed by the Chief-Justice in the office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Seventh. Nominations and recommendations founded upon testimony furnished as above required, will be made as early as practicable after the same shall have been received. If more than one gentleman in any district or Territory is thus recommended to him, the Chief-Justice will exercise his discretion in making the selection.

Eighth. Only one person will be recommended and nominated in any one Congressional District; except (1) in the case that the Court, having the appointing power, shall decline to appoint the persons first recommended and nominated, or (2) in the case that after the act shall have gone fully into operation, the appointing Court shall certify to the Chief-Justice that the business of the district cannot be properly done by one register, or (3) in some cases where a Congressional District may be partly in one Judicial District and partly in another.

THE TERRITORY PURCHASED FROM RUSSIA.

Climate and Temperature.—The coast from Prince of Wales Island to the entrance of Behring's straits during the winter months is about the same as the city of Washington. Little snow and much rain. During the summer months very foggy.

Timber.—The whole country, well up the northern coast, is heavily timbered, chiefly with hard-pine forests and small trees, up to the very shores. Some of the islands are heavily timbered with pine forests and dense underbrush, and some of them are destitute of timber, and covered with grass of a luxuriant growth.

Soil.—On the west coast, produces excellent barley and roots, such as radishes, turnips; and esculents, such as lettuce, cabbages, &c.

Animals.—Furred animals, such as sea otter, river otter, sables, furred seal, mink, foxes (black, silver, red, etc.,) in great numbers; red deer in the south and the reindeer in the north.

Fish.—Herring, salmon, halibut, and cod-fish abound in countless numbers. In Behring's sea and to the northward great whales are very numerous.

Minerals.—Surface washings of gold have been discovered on the headwaters of the streams on the east side of the coast range of mountains. The geological developments are the same on the western slopes. Native copper has been discovered in various places on the coast and in the vicinity of Copper river. Iron ore of excellent quality, and believed to exist in exhaustless quantities, is now being smelted and worked by Russian artisans in repairing ships, &c. Coal is also found in large quantities, and is being used by the Russians for naval purposes; is similar to New Brunswick coal. Recent discoveries have been made of what is believed to be a better quality of coal, but not yet tested.

Inhabitants.—Five or six thousand Russians, fifty or sixty thousand Indians and Esquimaux. The latter inhabit the coast on the Northern sea, are industrious, peaceable, and teachable, and live by hunting and fishing. The Indians inhabit the interior, are peaceable, and live by hunting, fishing and trapping.—Professor Baird.

"THE DELECTABLE CUSS."—On his way to Richmond, on Monday night, Hunnicutt took a seat in the car appropriated to the negroes, where he was found by the conductor when he went around to collect the tickets from the passengers. On calling on the "cuss," he handed over a second-class ticket, which is only sold to colored people, which the conductor refused to take. Hunnicutt asked if he was not in the second-class car. The conductor replied that if he were a negro, he could ride for a dollar, but if a white man, he must pay as white men paid. He said he had no more money, when one of his colored friends handed over to him a quarter, which made it all right, and the distinguished gentleman continued his trip without interruption.—Petersburg Index.

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits. Pamphlets containing well-know Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophies, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. Reference of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

EDUCATION OF THE PEOPLE.

In the midst of our poverty, there is no subject which claims more strongly the attention of our people than the education of our children. Our Colleges and higher schools, both male and female, are doing well for the times. Some of them are doing admirably. Our small grammar schools in certain localities are also partially successful, but it is distressing to think of the many thousands of the poor children of the State, who are deprived of the benefits of education. And it is yet more painful to reflect, that years must elapse before our Public School system can attain to anything like its former efficiency, purely for the lack of the means.

So far as our colored people, for the present, are concerned, their children are better supplied with the means of education than the whites are. This is done by the liberality of Northern associations, aided by the government. But this source cannot always last. The Southern States must inaugurate and carry forward educational systems for both races, based upon a more permanent reliance. We seriously doubt, if any thing like an efficient system for either can ever be adopted, relying upon an income from a funded investment. The resources of the State, in this regard, cannot be made really and efficiently available, for many years, if ever. The income from State bonds, Rail Road dividends, and the sale of Swamp Lands, may somewhat assist and to a small extent relieve the people from taxation, but we state it, as our best judgment, that the chief and most reliable resource for the education of the masses, perhaps for all time, is the annual taxation of the people. The children of both races must be educated, and each race must be taxed to meet its own share of expense in the benefits of education.

Our Public School system is the cheapest means of education, and under judicious management may be rendered very efficient. Our experience in this matter demonstrates it, and the sooner it is revived the better. In the mean time, are we doing what we ought in this work? In the towns, perhaps, both the white and colored children, in the main, are provided for—the blacks by the agency of Northern Associations and the Bureau, and the whites by the means of their parents and friends. Few, if any, charity or public schools are in operation, and yet there ought to be one or more public schools for the white children, paid for out of the contributions of the whites, in every town and village. More than this, in every country neighborhood, those who can furnish the means for the education of their own children, could easily aid in extending its benefits to many of the poor children.

In addition to the benefits of the day schools, Sunday schools should be established at different points for the instruction of both races. We can see no good reason why the education of the colored children of the South should be surrendered entirely to the control of Northern teachers. The colored children of the South are proper objects of our sympathy. Our responsibilities in this regard cannot be discharged by others. Nor can we see in the gathering of the colored children into Sabbath or day schools, devoted specially to their religious or literary instruction, by our own white teachers, especially where competent colored teachers cannot be obtained, any humiliation. The better instructed the colored race is, the better citizens they will become, and if taught by those among whom and by whom they have been raised and cared for, the more likely their education will be of the character to promote the interests of both races. Of course, we insist upon the schools in all cases being separate for both races. We do not know an intelligent colored person who desires mixed schools.

GOV. WORTH SUBMITS!—It seems that Gov. Worth was ordered to report to Gen. Sickles, at Charleston, for instructions; and, having done so, we are gravely informed by telegraph that the Governor accepts the Sherman act, and will advise the people of this State to reconstruct under it.—Standard.

Gov. Worth submits to law, good or bad, so long as it is law. He will do his whole duty to the government and the people of the State. Yet he will neither compromise his own principles nor his people. The Standard tries to make the impression that Gen. Sickles ordered Gov. Worth to Charleston, as if the Governor had been contumacious. We brand the imputation as false, Gen. Sickles had the fullest evidence, from his previous acquaintance with Gov. Worth, that he was ready to do what duty and his sound judgement dictated. Hence he sent a kind and polite invitation to Gov. Worth, and to his old friend, Gov. Orr, for a conference with him at Charleston, at the same time tendering them the hospitalities of his own house. And that is the "milk in the cocoa nut." Poor Haman! "All this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai, the Jew, sitting at the King's gate."

PRETTY CROP.—We are glad to learn from all quarters, that the prospects at present is, that we shall have the best fruit crops, the present year, that we have had for many years. It is not too late for disaster, yet the present character of the seasons justifies the hope that fruit will be abundant. As yet, even the plum is unhurt.

PROSPECTS FOR WHEAT.—The general impression is that the wheat crop in this State is very promising. Should it prove a good one, it will greatly lessen the scarcity felt in several sections of the State for breadstuffs.

RATHER DOUBTFUL.

We find our neighbor rather blue, in surveying the situation. Things are not working to his liking. The worm is gnawing at Jonah's gourd, and he is growing dubious of events. To day, he says:

"And we now say to our friend, who lives at a distance, and to all others, that it is already apparent—we weigh our words—that it is by no means certain this State will be reconstructed under the Sherman act."—Standard, April 11th.

But a few days ago, he was on his high horse and vauntingly said:

"It is written that in the latter times 'a nation shall be born in a day.' Our loyal people being ripe for it, the Republican party of this State sprang into existence 'in a day,' full-armed, and numbers not less than eighty thousand members! The result will show that these eighty thousand Republicans are as loyal to the Union as the same number in any State north of the Potomac."—Standard, April 4.

Less than two years ago, he avowed most solemnly that the people of North Carolina were a loyal people, and only after they refused to make him Governor charged them with disloyalty.

He is now by no means so certain that this State will be reconstructed under the Sherman Act. We see no cause to doubt, that a Convention will be called, and that said Convention will adopt a Constitution conformably to the requirements of the Reconstruction Acts of Congress. If there are 80,000 members of the Holdenite party in the State, who but that party can prevent reconstruction? If that party are the true friends of the Reconstruction platform of Congress, and there are 80,000 of them, can any power in the State prevent it? Impossible! The truth is the Holdenites are opposed to the Sherman Shellabarger bill.—The Congressional platform is not vindictive, bitter and violent enough for that party, and we suppose, from this intimation, that the 80,000 Holdenites intend to defeat Reconstruction under it. Let the colored people look closely into this matter. We warn them against entering into any pledges binding them to go with this party or that party in the South, or tieing themselves to the coat-tails of this or that old political demagogue. Let them do nothing which will prevent them from voting for the best men for the State Convention, whom they know to be honest and reliable—men who will vote for the Congressional platform—nothing more, nothing less.

From the Baltimore Gazette, 9th.

THE SOUTHERN ORPHANS' ASSOCIATION.

Upon the merits or demerits of the case which has been brought into the courts by the members of the "Southern Orphans' Association," we do not intend at present to pass any judgment. Neither do we presume as yet to say one word about the character or conduct of any of the parties to the controversy. But we have a duty to discharge to the public in this connection which we must promptly accept. We have no hesitation, therefore, in warning the community against subscribing for tickets in what is termed the Grand Presentation Concert, advertised to be held under the auspices of this association. Not only has the whole business been wretchedly mismanaged, but it has been carried on in a way that has caused the public to suspect, whether rightfully or wrongfully we do not pretend to say, that certain persons connected with the association will derive considerable advantage from the speculation, and the Southern orphans little or none. The names of a number of gentlemen who repudiate all knowledge or responsibility for the Presentation Concert have been freely used as though they had agreed to patronize it, and the managers state that the affair is to come off at the Maryland Institute on the 30th of April, although the Institute has not been and cannot be engaged for any such purpose. A great deal of money has already been sent to the agent, but until further advised we would caution benevolent people to refrain from sending any more.

[We publish the foregoing, as a matter of duty. There are conflicting statements as to the merits of the controversy, which has assumed a legal shape, between the various parties concerned in the management of this scheme. On account of the high character of most of the ladies and gentlemen whose names (whether by authority, or not, we have no means of knowing,) were associated with it, and in view of its laudable objects, we inserted as an advertisement the programme of its operations. It has been almost universally commended by the Press of the South.

The same considerations induced Mr. John Bragg to become the Agent for the sale of tickets for this city. He will cease to act in that capacity until the entire matter has been cleared up. Up to Saturday evening, Mr. B. had remitted the entire proceeds of his sales, and has telegraphic acknowledgment of their receipt by the proper officers of the Association. Monies received since that time he will, of course, be able to refund, in case it becomes necessary.

It is farther proper to mention, that we have been shown a private telegram, which indicates a satisfactory solution of the difficulty.]

CAPTURE OF OWENS.—Dr. I. J. Sloan, residing 12 miles from here, near the Steele Creek settlement, getting track of Owens, pursued him, and induced him to surrender. Owens was brought here by Dr. Sloan, Mr. C. L. Torrence and Mr. J. Price.—Charlotte Times.

Our readers will remember that this man Owens was charged with the murder of Mr. Withers. He is in jail waiting his trial.

FAYETTEVILLE AND FLORENCE RAILROAD.—At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Fayetteville and Florence Railroad, held in the Town Hall, on Thursday, the 4th inst., the following officers were elected:

Wm. McL. McKay, President: David A. Ray, E. L. Pemberton, Hector McKethan, John Shaw, Jas. M. Williams, A. G. Thornton, Hector McNeill, Murdock McRae, Robert P. Hamer, Directors.—North Carolina Presbyterian.

SOUTHERN RELIEF.—San Francisco, April 7.—An enthusiastic meeting was held here last night to aid the destitute people of the Southern States.

Governor Lowe presided, and over $10,000 was subscribed. Arrangements are being made to make collections throughout the Pacific States.

The express, railroad, and telegraph companies have offered their services free.

THE MARYLAND REVOLUTIONISTS.

From the Nation, (Radical).

The Maryland Republicans are calling on Congress to do for them what they would not do for themselves, though they were entreated, and though they had superabundant power. In resolutions passed in party convention, and in others passed by the Republican members of the General Assembly, they beg Congress to interfere and "protect the loyal majority of the people of Maryland, white and colored." Loyalty was as valid a reason for forgetting color two years ago as it is now, and the Maryland Republicans might then have done what Congress will not do and cannot do—what, at any rate, the Republican party will not undertake to do. Their case is bad, and much to be regretted; but, so far as concerns the white people of the State, it is hardly possible to resist saying that they are served right. Twenty years from now, and after much tip-hill work, they may get what, a couple of years ago, a vote of the Legislature would have given them.

The Nation makes a good point in the foregoing, and its exposure of the hypocrisy of the self-styled "Southern Loyalists" is as applicable to North Carolina as it is to Maryland. It is only when they think they can use the blacks to accomplish their selfish purposes, and to ride into the places of power from which they have been deservedly hurled by a justly indignant people, that they affect an anxious concern for the welfare of the colored race. "Loyalty," as they construe the word, "was as valid a reason for forgetting color two years ago, as it is now." They are debarred, too, from their usual contemptible subterfuge, when pinned to the wall for their inconsistencies upon the subject, that it was not "safe" for them to express different opinions; for the State was then, as now, under the rule of Federal bayonets, and Provisional Governor Holden declared, in an official document, that the people of North Carolina were "truly loyal." It was under such circumstances that the Standard pronounced "unqualified opposition to what is called negro-suffrage," as the most conspicuous of Union landmarks," and that Mr. C. L. Harris, Mr. Scoggin, Mr. Willie D. Jones, and others voted even against allowing the "loyal colored Unionists" to testify in our Courts of Justice! And now, forsooth, they are the life long friends and consistent champions of the black race! What brazen effrontery, —what disgusting duplicity!

FALSEHOOD EXPOSED.

A short time ago, when the reconstruction measures, so-called, were before Congress, the revolutionary demagogues therein literally howled forth denunciations of the alleged wide-sweeping crime in the South.—No Northern man could live there. That there was no ground for the statements is seen by such articles as the following, from the New York Tribune:

"All our advices from the South indicate the prevalence of a very general desire to invite and encourage immigration and settlement. A year or so ago, there were reservations and conditions stipulated—some preferred Germans, or at least Europeans; others were willing to receive even Yankees, if they would eschew offensive politics and 'isms;' but now the general cry is, 'Come and buy our lands; make homes and set to work among us; if you live honestly and soberly, we will make you welcome.' Almost every one realizes that free labor requires and rewards a far denser population than those States have ever yet had—that quadruple their present numbers could find a generous, assured subsistence on their soil. The following overture, just unanimously passed by both Houses of the Virginia Legislature, presages a systematic effort to allure settlers from the North to rebuild the waste places of the 'Old Dominion:'

1. Resolved, That we hereby invite immigration, embracing all classes of men, from all countries, to Virginia, to settle her surplus lands and engage in all great industrial pursuits.

2. That we earnestly recommend the citizens of Virginia to hold primary meetings in their respective counties, inviting immigration within their limits, and to appoint a principal agent in each, through whom communication may be held respecting land offered for sale.

3. That General Daniel Ruggles, of Fredericksburg, is hereby recommended as a gentleman well qualified to induce immigration to the State, and with whom communication by county agents is respectfully requested.

THE PROBABILITY OF A JULY SESSION OF CONGRESS—EFFECT OF THE LATE SESSION ON THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

There is to be a general stampede of the Senators after the adjournment of the present extra session of the Senate, without regard or reference to the proposed July session. Even those Senators who live beyond the Rocky Mountains propose to start for their homes at the earliest moment, unless it be in the case of some, as with General Nye, who have just returned to Washington after visiting their constituents. Members of the House are already scarce in Washington, and there is not the slightest expectation in any quarter that there will be anything like a quorum present in July. There are, of course, those who desire it, and who will be on hand; but they will only give themselves a journey for nothing. Certain Republican Senators declare that they have made, and shall make, no arrangements whatever with a view to attending the July session, believing that a meeting of Congress at that time would be full of mischief to the country and alarm to the people.

It is asserted that the late session was one of the most potent causes of Republican defeat in Connecticut, and that if, when Congress had performed its useful labors, it had had the good sense to have adjourned, there would have been no such result.—The people, say such Senators, became apprehensive that Congress would, from sheer idleness, like some gathering of school boys, perpetrate some mischief; and that these fears but naturally resulted in a popular reaction. One Senator, of the republican school, remarks thus: "Congress needed a rebuke for such folly, and it has come."—N. Y. Herald.

SOUTH CAROLINA FREEDMEN.

CHARLESTON, April 6.—General Scott, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in this State, has issued a circular letter to the freedmen, deprecating the violent assertion of their supposed rights, and urging them to have recourse to the courts for redress of wrongs. This letter refers to the recent street car disturbances.

A rebellion has broken out in Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania. The Keystone is a rebellious State. Whisky caused an insurrection there in Washington's time, but wages appears to be the difficulty now. She never fights about an abstraction.

A STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

True charity is not alone giving alms to the needy. Indeed, this is frequently the least charity; often given ostentatiously and received with feelings of mortification, it curses both the giver and the receiver.—Among the thousands now more or less destitute in the South help to earn the means of living is the most acceptable assistance that can be rendered, and the good people of Baltimore, whose hearts and purses have always been open as day to the wants of our people, have inaugurated an institution which, if properly managed, will relieve many an aching heart without offending the pride of the recipient of its aid.

The following notice, which we cut from the Baltimore Gazette, will inform many a Southern lady how she can make the accomplishments which were hitherto her pride and delight now furnish her a means of support:

LADIES' DEPOSITORY.—The Depository, established under the auspices of some of the ladies of the Southern Relief Association, has been in operation little over a month, but has already grown into an established success. A very large number of Southern ladies residing in Baltimore have already received permits to work as seamstresses, and are kept constantly employed on material provided for them. Orders for all kinds of work are received, from the coarsest underclothing to the finest embroidery, and for every variety, including even boys clothing. To a number of ladies residing further South material provided by the Depository is sent to be made up.—This, when returned, is sold, and the profit paid over to the employees.

A variety of articles are constantly received from the South and disposed of for the benefit of persons in need. From Carolina, Georgia, and Virginia there come pickles, preserves, fruits, marmalades, &c., of the very choicest character, and from these and other States come all kinds of fancy work and ready made clothing. Originally it was intended to reserve five per cent. from all amounts paid out, for the expenses of the Depository. The subscriptions received from members, of whom there are already over three hundred, and various donations, including money, cakes, flowers and every variety of goods, constantly received, show that this is unnecessary, and the ladies employed now receive full pay for all work done.

Seldom has a work so noble and so truly charitable been inaugurated. Touched by the cries of misery that have reached them from their suffering sisters of the South, ladies of all creeds have banded together animated by one common desire to relieve the poor and the sorrow stricken. Success almost unhoped for has already crowned their efforts. The little store, 97 Lexington street, now occupied by them, is found too small, and they hope soon to move to a larger one. Their increased expenses, it is anticipated, will be borne by the annual subscriptions, which, being only five dollars, it is expected will be largely increased. Communications may be addressed to Mrs. Thomas Murdoch, Corresponding Secretary, who will return receipts for all subscriptions or donations.

THE SUPREME COURT REMEDY.

Georgia has followed the example of Mississippi in asking the protection of the Supreme Court from the operation of the Sherman and supplemental bills. We adhere to the opinion that no practical good can result to the States making such application, and much practical harm may be done the country at large by forcing upon this tribunal, at the present time, the alternative of cringing to power or arraying itself against Congress. Petersburg Index.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, CONN., April 8.—The Democrats carried the city election to-day by 600 majority; a gain of 130 since last Monday.

HOMICIDE.—Bad blood between two freedmen named William Pike and Charles Vines culminated early on Sunday morning in a collision, which resulted in the death of the latter. Pike struck him with a medium size walking stick of seasoned cedar across the forehead, and, strange to say, killed him without breaking the skull. Both were negroes of good character. Pike has been bailed to appear at the next Superior Court in the sum of $1,000.—Warrenton Vindicator.

SUPERIOR COURT OF BURKE.—Last week the Superior Court of Burke held its session at Morganton, his Hon. Judge Buxton on the Bench. Two capital cases were disposed of.

James C McKesson, charged with having killed Robert Tate, was found guilty of manslaughter. Abram Smith and son Daniel, charged with the murder of Carswell, were tried. Abram Smith was discharged. Daniel Smith was found guilty of the murder and sentenced to be hanged the first Friday in May. His counsel, however, took an appeal. Very little business on the civil docket was disposed of.—Salisbury Banner.

POLITICS IN LOUISA.—On Monday last there was a great gathering at Louisa Court-House, the majority of the assembly being negroes, of whom several hundred were in attendance. The meeting was addressed by Fountain Perkins, negro, in a very sensible speech, and which was highly conservative in its tone, and seemed to give general satisfaction. He was succeeded by Messrs. F. V. Watson, formerly a member of the House of Delegates, and George Hackett, both of which gentlemen addressed some good advice to their hearers, by whom it was well received.

We are pleased to chronicle these evidences of the determination of our people to reason with the colored population, and to expose the interested schemes of the few vagabond beggars who, under the pretence of being the best friends of the negro, are animated only by a desire of stripping him of his hard-earned wages.—Richmond Enquirer, 10th.

It is announced that, on April 4th, Thaddeus Stevens passed his 75th birthday. He has been unable to attend to business for several days' on account of illness, but was somewhat better at last accounts. We understand that Mr. Stevens is convinced that this is his last illness, and that he is preparing for death.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The generous contribution of $1,000 from the Legislature of North Carolina, and the proceeds of a concert held by kind friends in Texas, amounting to $382 68, are thankfully acknowledged by the Oakwood Memorial Association.

The Helena (Ark.) Herald notices a remarkably large meteor that fell in that vicinity, which lighted up the town equal to a thousand gas-burners.

Brick Pomeroy says he has received ten thousand new subscribers in the last ten weeks. He is going to build for his own use a printing-office to cost $18,000.

The feature of Saturday's business in produce in New York was a brisk trade in flour, wheat, corn, and rye, partly on speculative account, at much higher prices.

The diamond ring given by an unknown lady of Washington for the relief of the suffering people of the South is said by the Intelligencer, to be worth sixty dollars.

THE SENTINEL.

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 11, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

To ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis) announces a new lot of Hardware.

See daily announcement by Mitchell, Allen & Co., No. 22, Pollok Street, Newbern.

We call special attention to the advertisement of B. P. Williamson & Co. in our columns to day, headed "Family Supplies." It is refreshing to read this advertisement. They have for sale, in small packages to suit purchasers, the very best family flour to be bought for love or money, choice Southampton Hams and Sides, the delicious flavor of which cannot fail to please, the very best Ale and Stout manufactured in England, and Wines, Gin and Brandy, pure and unadulterated.

See notice of administration.

TRADE SALES.—The great trade sale at B. P. Williamson & Co's Auction Rooms, Fayetteville Street, came off yesterday, and gave general satisfaction. The attendance of merchants and others was good, and a large amount of Groceries, Dry Goods, Hardware, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Notions, &c., were disposed of on very favorable terms for the purchasers. These auction sales have attracted considerable attention, and are a very great convenience to our country dealers. We understand Coffee, Sugar, Boots, Shoes, Hats, &c. sold for such prices as will prevent the necessity of travelling North to make purchases of these indispensable articles. Another great auction sale by this enterprising firm will take place at an early day.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Carolina Jeffreys: Charged with having in her possession a breastpin, stolen from Cynthia Morgan.—Breastpin found and returned to the owner.

John Henry McCullers, (colored,): Charged with attempting to commit outrage upon Elizabeth Pettiford, (colored.) Returned to the Superior Court.

Henry Fry: Lodged in the guard house for intoxication and disorderly conduct on the street. Fined $2.

MYSTERIOUS.—Over the entrance to the magnificent Tucker Hall, now rapidly approaching completion, we see the placard, "No admittance, except on business." This may be but a wise precaution, on the part of the workmen, to prevent hindrance and interruption in their labors. But we suspect it is something more. We shouldn't be surprised if the Messrs. Tucker were getting up something particularly attractive inside, with which to delight and astonish the public one of these days.

BASE BALL.—The Crescent Club of this city leave for Chapel Hill, to-morrow morning, to play the match-game with the University Club for the champion ball of the State.

LETTERS ON BRAZIL.—We are receiving applications from various gentlemen for back numbers of the Sentinel containing the articles on Brazil. We are unable to supply any more of the back numbers.

BUILDINGS WANTED.—There are two fine lots in our limits, which require speedy improvement. Both lots are eligible and desirable, and, if properly refitted and rebuilt, would add greatly to the city. We allude to the old Union Hotel lot and the Exchange Hotel lot. We have heard it intimated that the proprietors of both lots speak of rebuilding. Either would make beautiful residences or Hotels. We hope to see these improvements at no distant day.

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

THE HOLLYWOOD BAZAAR DONATION.—The box for the Hollywood Bazaar, prepared by a portion of the ladies of this City, as a contribution to its patriotic objects, is now fully made up and will be immediately forwarded. It contains many of the most elegant articles we have ever seen, and cannot fail to impress their Richmond sisters with the exceeding tastefulness and beauty of the handiwork of our fair townswomen. Mrs. H. S. Smith, the President of the Memorial Sewing Society, under whose immediate auspices the donation has been gotten up, and the other ladies connected with the Association, or who have contributed to the box, deserve all praise for their generous and beautiful gift.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS.

RALEIGH, April 10, 1867.

At a special meeting of the Board of Commissioners, held this evening, were present: Wm. D. Haywood, Esq., Mayor, Messrs. J. M. Betts, D. L. Royster, J. D. Royster, J. J. Overby, A. N. McKimmon and B. F. Cheatham, Commissioners.

The Board proceeded to appoint the following gentlemen as Assessors of the City property for the present year, viz:

West Ward.—James Litchford, Esq.

Middle Ward.—Gen. R. W. Haywood.

East Ward.—Wm. C. Upchurch, Esq.;

Ordered, That they receive $3 per day, each, for their services, while thus engaged.

A communication was received and read, from the officers of the Fire Companies, concerning hose for the Companies.

On motion of Mr. Betts, approved of by the Board.

An account of Fire Companies Nos. 1 and 2 for $83 was presented, and, on motion of Mr. McKimmon, allowed.

On motion of Mr. J. D. Royster, ordered that the parties who have been notified to repair their side walks with brick, be allowed sixty days further time, so that they may procure brick of a good quality.

On motion of Mr. McKimmon, ordered that the Chief of Police notify Mrs. P. Smith to remove a tree standing on the side walk near her premises, on Salisbury Street; also, that J. W. B. Watson, Esq. be notified to remove a cedar tree on the side walk, on Fayetteville St., near his residence.

On motion of Mr. J. D. Royster, ordered that the Mayor and Chief of Police be requested to confer with Dr. Smith and request him to have a lot of manure removed from the Northeast corner of Moore Square, in the City of Raleigh, occupied by the U. S. Government.

J. J. CHRISTOPHERS, Clerk.

COLORED PEOPLE AT FAYETTEVILLE.—A meeting of the colored people of Cumberland was held in Fayetteville, on the 4th instant, which endorsed the proceedings of the Holdenite meeting held in this city. One of the editors of the Fayetteville News attended, and gives the following wholesome advice:

"As it was a public and political meeting, we felt assured that we would be admitted and received, and we believed it to be our duty, as public journalists, to know what was being done, and to publish the proceedings as matters of general interest, which report we were invited to make, after entering, by the offer of a desk for that purpose. Had we been called upon to make any remaks, we would have then said there what we now write here, as follows: We are unequivocally among those who are friends of the negro, who wish to see him advance and prosper, and however much our dearest hopes were crushed by the downfall of the Confederacy and the overthrow of our Southern institutions, we cherish no enmity against the black man because those circumstances, so adverse to us, conferred upon him freedom, and because legislation, which disfranchises so many whites, vests him with suffrage and citizenship. The colored people are perfectly right and reasonable in enjoying to their fullest extent the blessings which they have newly acquired, and it is only by a lively interest in all the changes of their new condition that they will hereafter elevate themselves.

But with all this, we wish that they could see the defects of the policy which without nature deliberation accepts the Republican organization and platform recently formed at Raleigh, as all that is needful, and estops any aid or co-operation from any other quarter. Now we speak without any selfish motive or unworthy design—of this we are certain; we have no ambition for political honors, and the casting of votes hereafter will not affect our individual interests in the slightest degree. But we know that in this community, in this county, in this whole section, the majority are desirous to do all for the good of every class and the whole country; they know the white and black interests to be identical; and yet these men, true patriots, friends to the negro, and bound by allegiance to the Federal government, are not prepared to commit themselves to, or take part in, a Republican convention. We hope that a moderate, conservative and necessarily beneficial, course will be taken through the country in this matter hereafter, and that much good will result."

NEW YORK SOUTHERN RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

This excellent Society, through their Secretary, Mrs. Algernon S. Sullivan, has forwarded to the "suffering women and children," through the undersigned, at different times, the sum of $560,00,—also two boxes of clothing, &c.

The last remittance of the above sum, to the amount of $200,00, I am instructed to send to "secluded country neighborhoods."

This noble charity will be blessed of Heaven, in doing good to the hearts of men everywhere, as well as in relieving the wants of the suffering poor among us.

Will you, Messrs. Editors, publish the above in your excellent paper, and add such comments as you may deem proper, and oblige

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, N. C., April 8th, 1867.

Editors Sentinel:—A destructive fire occurred in this place last night, (Sunday,) at 10 o'clock. The only Hotel in the place, together with a store adjoining, were burned to the ground. The loss is a heavy one, estimated at $10,000, and is shared by several persons, no part of which is covered by insurance. Messrs. Ben. Johnson, Capt. W. R. Williams, W. C. Woodson (the enterprising conductor of the Hotel,) Washington Thomas, Dr. Fuqua, J. Lovesay, and G. Owen, were the sufferers. The surrounding property was saved only by the extraordinary exertions of the citizens of all classes.

The freedmen deserve great credit for their timely and laborious assistance, and will not go unrewarded. Several persons, white and colored, barely escaped perishing. So rapid was the progress of the fire that some leaped from the second and third stories of the building, and, strange to say, were not even seriously injured.

The Hotel had been recently refitted, and, under the management of Mr. Woodson, an enterprising young man, just commencing life, was gaining the favor of a well served public.

I should not fail to add that Capt. Williams' life was saved by the prompt and timely efforts of Lieut. Foote, U. S. Army, a boarder at the Hotel. The Captain was helpless, and seriously ill from a fractured knee. His condition, because of the shock received, is now a precarious one. P.

A clergyman "down East" asked a woman he had baptised, as she was coming out of the water, how she felt in her mind, and was somewhat surprised to hear her answer, "bully."

WASHINGTON, April 10.

In the Senate, the President was called upon for the correspondence relative to prisoners taken by the belligerents in Mexico.

The credentials of Hon. Mathias E. Manly, Senator elect from North Carolina, were presented and laid on the table.

Fessenden and Yates were the only Senators who voted against the ratification of the Russian treaty

Ex-Senator Stockton was rejected as Minister to Austria.

Gov. Morton, Senator from Indiana, will deliver the address to the negro celebration on the 16th inst.

The Russian treaty makes the cession and rights of possession complete and absolute, on the exchange of ratifications, without waiting for a formal delivery. The fortifications and military posts are to be immediately delivered up to the United States. The Russian troops are to be withdrawn as soon as practicable. The United States pays $7,200,000 in gold, at the Treasury at Washington, within ten months after the exchange of ratification.

The cession is free and unencumbered by any reservations of privileges, franchises, grants or possessions, by any companies of Russian or other nationalities, or except merely private and individual property holders. All rights of dominion will pass to the United States. The ratifications are to be exchanged at Washington, before the 13th. of June, or the treaty falls.

The Continental domain acquired is about 380 000 square miles, and the islands will increase it to 450,000.

The private and individual property of the civilized inhabitants is to be respected. The churches built by the Russian government are to remain the property of the resident members of the Greek Oriental church. The civilized inhabitants may remain three years in the territory, without forfeiting their allegiance to Russia. Those choosing permanently to remain will become American citizens and will be protected in liberty, property and religion. The uncivilized tribes are put on the same footing as the Aborigines of this country.

The President is quite indisposed and his illness will probably prolong the Senatorial session.

Georgia's petition is signed by Messrs. Black, Brent, Cowan and O'Conner, with a certificate of Gov. Jenkins attached. It prays for an injunction against Secretary Stanton, Gens. Grant and Pope.

The proceedings of the Court, to-morrow, are looked for with intense anxiety. Some of the New York papers have made arrangements for a verbatim report of the argument.

The proof of Georgia's petition was read last night by Chas. O'Connor, who probably wrote it.

Baltimore voted for a Convention and Sunday cars, by a small majority. The result in the State is doubtful.

GRAND CHARITABLE

PRESENTATION CONCERT,

IN AID OF THE Southern Orphan Association.

Incorporated by the Legislature of Virginia, January 30, 1867.

TO BE GIVEN AT THE

MARYLAND INSTITUTE

BALTIMORE,

APRIL 30th 1867

THE PROFITS OF THIS CONCERT WILL BE GIVEN TO THE SOUTHERN ORPHANS' ASSOCIATION, TO THE SUBJOINED ADDRESS, FROM THE OFFICERS OF WHICH, WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC:

"We, the Officers of the Southern Orphans' Association, for the maintenance and education of the destitute orphans of deceased Southern soldiers and sailors, earnestly solicit the sympathy and co-operation in our

Grand Presentation Concert,

Of all who desire to see the

"HOME AND SCHOOL"

enabled to receive and care for all the needy ones who seek its shelter and protection.

Thanking our friends for their past contributions and assistance, we again appeal to them to help us in a more extensive enterprise. It is the design of this Association to erect a for the orphans of the South, both male and female, on an extensive scale, in the city of Richmond, Virginia. As an inducement to have the building located there, the Common Council of that city have guaranteed a sufficient lot of land, in an elevated and healthful location, and will increase the quantity of land if needed.

It is with a confident hope in a favorable response to this appeal to a public which has never yet failed to sustain a charitable institution, that we have entered into an arrangement with Messrs. L. T. PALMER & Co., No. 13 Holliday street, Baltimore, to organize a Grand Musical Presentation Concert for the benefit, and earnestly solicit the kindly aid and patronage of the public to ensure its success.

(Signed)

Mrs. J. L. HAMMOND, President.
Mrs. Dr. J. B. BEAN, Vice President.
Mrs. E. A. F. MEARS, Treasurer.
Mrs. Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Cor. Secretary.
Mr. J. H. SCHIERS, Recording Secretary.
Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Financial Secretary.
H. C. DALLAM, Esq., Counsellor.
BALTIMORE, Feb. —, 1867.

TRUSTEES.

Mrs. W. S. FOSTOCK, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. A. HAWKINS, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. CHAS. McCUBBIN, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. Hon. JAS. LYONS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. JAS. THOMAS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. THOS. BRANCH, Richmond, Va.

It may seem unnecessary to add a single word to the above address, but calls upon the Institution have been so numerous and pressing, and the struggle through which it is now passing to widen the circle of its charities is of such an arduous nature, that the management cannot too strongly urge upon the

HUMANE AND PATHETIC

everywhere, an active participation in this additional attempt to alleviate the sad condition of great numbers of helpless children, rendered thus by the terrible war through which we have passed. And, assuredly, whatever may have been the relative political views of ladies and gentlemen heretofore, all must agree that the children referred to, could not, by any possibility, have had any agency in bringing about their present

DEPLORABLE AND DESTITUTE CONDITION, and are suitable objects for the charity of all persons of whatever shade of political opinion. The

"HOME AND SCHOOL"

which they now more particularly seek to establish and endow, will be of incalculable benefit by providing not only food and raiment for these helpless ones, but likewise solid and thorough education, thus qualifying them for Future Usefulness to Society at Large.

In order that this appeal may be effectual in enlisting the active interest and co-operation of all classes of persons everywhere, we have concluded to issue for the Grand Presentation Musical Concert,

500,000 tickets at the nominal price of $1 each—a single ticket entitling the purchaser to a gift—there being one gift to every ticket. The gifts are as follows:

THE SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1867.

THE INDEPENDENT FARMER.

Let sailors sing of the wholy deep,
Let soldiers praise their banner,
But in my heart this toast I'll keep—
The Independent Farmer.
When first the rose in robe of green
Unfolds its crimson lining,
And round his cottage porch is seen
The honeysuckle twining;
When banks of bloom their sweetness yield,
To bees that gather honey,
He drives his team across the field,
Where skies are soft and sunny.

The blackbird clucks behind the plow,
The quail pipes loud and clearly,
You orchard hides behind its bough
The home he loves so dearly;
The gray and old barn doors unfold
His ample store to measure,
More rich than heaps of hoarded gold,
A precious, blessed treasure;
While yonder in the porch there stands
His wife, the lovely charmer,
The sweetest rose on all his lands—
The Independent Farmer.

To him the Spring comes dancingly,
To him the Summer blushes,
The Autumn smiles with yellow ray,
His sleep old Winter hushes;
He cares not how the world may move,
No doubts or fears confound him;
His little flocks are linked to love,
And household angels round him;
He trusts to God and loves his wife,
Nor griefs nor ills may harm her,
He's nature's nobleman in life—
The Independent Farmer.

A GALLANT BURGLAR.

The Buffalo Express, of Friday, has the following story:

"Dick Turpin, Jack Sheppard, Sixteen-String Jack, and those other heroes in the forbidden tales which thousands of school boys have read on the sly, and many a sentimental maiden sighed to be robbed by, would not have blushed for the honor of their craft, could they have listened to the deeds of one of their followers as narrated in the Police Court yesterday. Our readers have already been told that in February last the house of Mr. Gilbert White, on Seventh Street, near Virginia, was entered and a gold watch and $700 taken therefrom. Yesterday a young man named John Moreover was brought up on a charge of having been connected with the affair. Mr. White and his wife, with their daughter, Mrs. Wall and her little son were the witnesses. From the story of Mrs. Wall, who, on the night of the robbery, was sitting up with her mother, who was ill, it would appear that the thief was of a superior order. He was in the house about three quarters of an hour, and is described as having a voice "soft, gentle and low"—an excellent thing in a woman or burglar. He restored Mr. Wall's watch on being told that it was a keepsake, as also fifteen dollars in gold and silver which had been kept for a long time by Mrs. White. On knocking some pictures from a table he apologized, and asked if he should replace them. He expressed his regret at Mrs. White's sickness, and hoped for her speedy recovery, at the same time stating that he was not used to burglary, but had not eaten anything for four days, thus marring the good impression he had produced by telling what was probably a lie; although he seemed to be "as mild a mannered man as ever scuttled ships or cut a throat." Mrs. Wall was unable to identify the prisoner as the graceful but immoral gentleman. The little boy, however, swore that he was the man, and he was fully committed for trial.

"THAT'S VERY ODD."

A gentleman was recounting his travels one evening after dinner to a friend, and commenced in this way: "When I was travelling in Russia I was attacked in crossing a forest by a pack of twelve wolves, and from my postchaise window I fired my revolver and killed the first wolf, and, strange to say, his companions stopped and devoured him, and then came on again to the fight. I shot another, and my postilion killed a third, both of which were devoured, and so we went on until only one wolf remained, and I killed him as we were entering the town, and I observed that he was immensely fat. He, of course, had devoured all his companions." "Dear me," said the friend, "that's very odd." "Very odd," said the traveller; "but not nearly so odd as that which happened the following day. I was out shooting antelopes, and fired at one as he stood on the top of a crag, and, odd to say, the ball passed through his neck and killed another which was standing on a crag a quarter of a mile off." "That's very odd," said the friend.—"Yes, but the odd part of the story is to come. The report of my rifle so alarmed and old he bear which happened to be in a tree, that he fell to the ground, broke his neck, and died on the spot." "Well," said the friend, "upon my soul, that's very odd." "Yes, odd," said the traveller; "but not so odd as the sequel to my story. A thunder storm came on, and I sought refuge in a hollow tree, and, to my horror, I descended into a nest of young bears, where I had not been very long when I heard a strange tapping, the unmistakable sign of the return of the she bear. She ascended the tree and was descending the hollow. With the rapidity of lightning I seized her by the tail and plunged my hunting knife into her haunches, upon which she started upward, dragging me with her, and as she went down on one side of the tree I escaped by the other." "Now, really, that's very odd," said the friend, "for it's the first time in my life I ever heard of a bear with a tail." "Yes," replied the traveller, "and it was the only time I ever met with one, and that's very odd."

COUSIN SALLIE.—A few days ago, we saw a box at the landing, which was marked "Wm. Potts, Medical Purveyor C. S. A., Montgomery, Alabama, C. S. A." We had not seen it long before an individual, more than three sheets in the wind, came hiccupping and staggering among the barrels, bags and boxes on the levee. He was not long in gyrating up to the box we have mentioned. He saw the address and gave two or three jarring hiccups in speedy succession, before he could get out a punch like laugh. He finally straightened himself up with the gravity of a punchinello and exclaimed, "how are you, Cousin Sallie?" "Well, old C. S. A.," he continued; "I thought you were dead; Cousin Sal, your initials must now read, Confidence Strengthens Afflictions. You've had a hard road, old gal, and the Radicals intend to send you across Jordan, but keep a stiff upper lip, and you'll come out right after all." He took his leave by giving some half dozen hiccups, and saying "Old C. S. A., I have fought, bled and died for you, but hang me if I ever shoulder a musket again for anybody."—Memphis Appeal.

A LEAKY POET.—A disconsolate poet has undertaken to immortalize a recent boat disaster. The following melancholy stanza tells his version of the whole story:

"She heaved and set, and set and heaved,
And high her rudder flung;
And every time she heaved and set,
A water leak she sprung."

"Ma," said a five year old young lady to her mother, the other day; "do they make men the same as they do stockings?" "How absurd you are, Jane—of course not." Then what made you say this morning, ma, that Major Spanker was a remarkably well knit man?"

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and try offenders, or when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted, and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall have the right to vote and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX.
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER.
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take the obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLARARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplementary to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restorations.

Be it enacted &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I,——, do solemnly swear or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God," which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such boards, officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make said complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as deirgates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First-class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required.—In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages.—This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States.—Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.
